Pediatric Specialty Clinic debuts at Overland Park Regional Medical Center
Johnson County's premier new option in children's specialty medicine will deliver comprehensive care and treatment expertise for multiple conditions.

Overland Park, Kan., Nov. 5, 2009 – Overland Park Regional Medical Center, an HCA Midwest hospital, and Midwest Physicians today announced the opening of Johnson County's newest choice in children's specialty medicine, The Pediatric Specialty Clinic.

This unique practice brings together some of the region's foremost pediatric specialists to offer expertise in multiple specialties such as cardiology, rheumatology, child development and more. The clinic's physicians and highly-skilled nursing and support staff deliver treatment for more than 100 different medical conditions.

The Pediatric Specialty Clinic's unique treatment approach is open and collaborative, with specialists partnering to ensure each child's health is viewed holistically and with an eye toward the best possible outcome and quality of life. The clinic is conveniently located on the campus of Overland Park Regional Medical Center, offering quick and easy access to hospital resources such as lab, diagnostic and surgical facilities.

The Pediatric Specialty Clinic's specialties include cardiology, child development and behavior, feeding team, genetics, hematology/oncology, neurology, pulmonology and rheumatology. Clinic physicians are board-certified, fellowship-trained and credentialed by some of the most academically rigorous and research-based institutions in the country.

"The Pediatric Specialty Clinic represents our commitment to provide area residents with the very best in expert care and treatment options," says Gay Nord, Overland Park Regional Medical Center president and chief executive officer. "The clinic offers families direct access to some of the region's preeminent children's specialists and expert treatment for numerous complex conditions. Parents can feel confident knowing their children can receive the highest level of care, without having to travel far from home."

The Pediatric Specialty Clinic is located at 10550 Quivira Road, Suite 520, Overland Park, KS 66215
